The G o referred to above is not under these rules & it does not help the case at all

1/12

In ~~the~~ face of para 2 of G o d 4 th June 1912 it is not clear why the Dy Commr thinks that the Bangarpet Palace property is not exempted from taxation. The list appended to the order is merely for convenience of enumeration of properties in the principal cities of Bangalore & Mysore. & that this forms the entire subject of the order as agreed by the S of S is not correct

Submitted with address

3/12 The point for note in this case is that though the building in question is a palace building it is perhaps being used for other purposes

Sir,

I have the honour to state that a mohatarfa tax of Rs.6/- per annum has been imposed upon the Palace Building at Chamarajanagar, known as Amildar's quarters. A sum of Rs.30/- being the tax for five years from 1910-11 is still in arrears

2. According to the Bye-laws of the Municipality sanctioned in Government Order No.2340/Ml.69-13-101 dated the 22nd September 1914 all buildings belonging to the Palace are exempted from taxation -- and consequently no tax is being levied on this building since 191[illegible] 1916. Regarding the adjustment of the old arrears of Rs.30/- the President having sent a requisition to the Huzur Secretary, he has in his letter No.4010 dated the 12th April 1919, replied that the building in question is a Palace property and as such is exempted from taxation as per Government Order No.3274-93/Ml 172-12-1 dated the 4th November 1912 This order deals with Palace Buildings situated in the Cities of Mysore and Bangalore and as such does not appear to be applicable to this building also The Council has however resolved that the arrears may be written off the account
